

The Adventure Soc Ltd

(trading as 'The Adventure Society')

Customer Terms and Conditions

By booking a place on one of our expeditions you agree to the following:

- That you and/or your child's age lies within that which may be advertised for the expedition
- That you and/or your child are physically and mentally able to attend the expedition, having read the general overview and/or list of activities involved
- That you will complete and return any Welcome Pack or MEDCON or KITRAT forms on request should they be sent
- That any cancellation on your part will result in a loss of payment. Refunds, however partial, will only be possible if there is an active waiting list for the expedition and enough prior warning (no fewer than 21 days)
- That you give permission for Adventure Society staff to act in loco parentis of any children for the duration of the expedition, unless a parent is present during that specific activity of an expedition
- Should the Adventure Society cancel, postpone or re-arrange the expedition, you will be entitled to choose between either a place on said expedition or a full refund within 14 days of cancellation
